

I urge you to oppose the weakening of the Indiana telephone privacy law. My life has become measurably better with the no-call list and I am heartsick to think that the FCC will side with bankers, etc. against the common person. I urge each person involved in making a decision to think what she or he would prefer personally.